Contents of volume 94

Number 1

Regular articles

FERMÍN MOSCOSO DEL PRADO MARTÍN (Medical Research Council — Cognition and Brain Sciences Unit, University of Nijmegen and Max Planck Institute for Psycholinguistics), ALEKSANDAR KOSTIĆ (University of Belgrade) and R. HARALD BAAYEN (University of Nijmegen and Max Planck Institute for Psycholinguistics)
Putting the bits together: an information theoretical perspective on morphological processing, 1–18

HELENE INTRAUB (University of Delaware)
Anticipatory spatial representation of 3D regions explored by sighted observers and a deaf-and-blind-observer, 19–37

TOM HARTLEY, IRIS TRINKLER and NEIL BURGESS (Institute of Cognitive Neuroscience, Department of Anatomy and Developmental Biology)
Geometric determinants of human spatial memory, 39–75

Discussion articles

ADELE E. GOLDBERG (University of Illinois)
But do we need universal grammar? Comment on Lidz et al. (2003), 77–84

JEFFREY LIDZ and LILA R. GLEITMAN (Northwestern University, University of Pennsylvania)
Yes, we still need Universal Grammar, 85–93

VALERIE A. KUHLMEIER, PAUL BLOOM and KAREN WYNN (Yale University)
Do 5-month-old infants see humans as material objects?, 95–103

DAVID H. RAKISON and JESSICA B. CICCHINO (Carnegie Mellon University)
Is an infant a people person?, 105–107

VALERIE A. KUHLMEIER, KAREN WYNN and PAUL BLOOM (Yale University)
People v. objects: a reply to Rakison and Cicchino, 109–112

Brief article

ANDREW P. BAYLISS, GIUSEPPE DI PELLEGRINO and STEVEN P. TIPPER (University of Wales)
Orienting of attention via observed eye gaze is head-centred, B1–B10

Number 2

Regular articles

ELSI KAISER and JOHN C. TRUESWELL (University of Pennsylvania)
The role of discourse context in the processing of a flexible word-order language, 113–147

NEIL BURGESS (University College London), HUGO J. SPIERS (MRC Cognition and Brain Sciences Unit) and ELENI PALEOLOGOU (University College London)
Orientational manoeuvres in the dark: dissociating allocentric and egocentric influences on spatial memory, 149–166

HEATHER K.J. VAN DER LELY, STUART ROSEN and ALAN ADLARD (University College London)
Grammatical language impairment and the specificity of cognitive domains: relations between auditory and language abilities, 167–183

RANXIAO FRANCES WANG (University of Illinois)
Action, verbal response and spatial reasoning, 185–192

Brief articles

JOSH MCDERMOTT (MIT) and MARC HAUSER (Harvard University)
Are consonant intervals music to their ears? Spontaneous acoustic preferences in a nonhuman primate, B11–B21

MAARTEN MILDERS, JULIA HAY, ARASH SAHRAIE (University of Aberdeen) and MICHAEL NIEDEGGEN (Henrich-Heine University)
Central inhibition ability modulates attention-induced motion blindness, B23–B33

ROLF A. ZWAAN and RICHARD H. YAXLEY (Florida State University)
Lateralization of object-shape information in semantic processing, B35–B43

BRITTAN A. BARKER (University of Iowa) and ROCHELLE S. NEWMAN (University of Maryland)
Listen to your mother! The role of talker familiarity in infant streaming, B45–B53

Number 3

Regular articles

ALVIN I. GOLDMAN and CHANDRA SEKHAR SRIPADA (Rutgers University)
Simulationist models of face-based emotion recognition, 193–213

AMY NEEDHAM (Duke University), GWENDEN DUEKER (Grand Valley State University) and GREGORY LOCKHEAD (Duke University)
Infants' formation and use of categories to segregate objects, 215–240

ATSUSHI SATO and ASAKO YASUDA (The University of Tokyo Hospital)
Illusion of sense of self-agency: discrepancy between the predicted and actual sensory consequences of actions modulates the sense of self-agency, but not the sense of self-ownership, 241–255

Brief articles

JELENA RISTIC and ALAN KINGSTONE (University of British Columbia)
Taking control of reflexive social attention, B55–B65

BÉNÉDICTE POULIN-CHARRONNAT, EMMANUEL BIGAND (Université de Bourgogne), FRANÇOIS MADURELL (Université de Paris-Sorbonne) and RONALD PEEREMAN (Université de Bourgogne)
Musical structure modulates semantic priming in vocal music, B67–B78

MICHAEL P. KASCHAK, CAROL J. MADDEN, DAVID J. THERRIAULT, RICHARD H. YAXLEY, MARK AVEYARD, ADRIENNE A. BLANCHARD and ROLF A. ZWAAN (Florida State University)
Perception of motion affects language processing, B79–B89

GABRIELLA VIGLIOCCO, DAVID P. VINSON (University College of London) and SIMONA SIRI (San Raffaele University)
Semantic similarity and grammatical class in naming actions, B91–B100

LIQIANG HUANG and HAROLD PASHLER (University of California)
Attention capacity and task difficulty in visual search, B101–B111
